

Name | Kellie A. McElhaney

---

Short CV (Biography)

Dr. McElhaney is the Founder and Executive Director of the Center for Equity Fluent Leadership (EFL), the founder of the Center for Responsible Business (CRB), and a faculty member at the Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley. Through provocative thought-leadership, evidence-based storytelling, and courageous and bold action, Kellie has challenged and supported business leaders, organizations and students to address some of society's biggest challenges and win in the marketplace. As such, Kellie is a much sought-after global keynote speaker, corporate / c-suite advisor, strategy consultant, mentor, and professor. Kellie has been the featured speaker at numerous events including: TED, Fortune Most Powerful Women, Network of Executive Women and others.

The Center for Equity Fluent Leadership has as its mission educating equity fluent leaders to ignite and accelerate change. Kellie helped developing this leadership construct and teaches it across the country and globe, from the U.S. to Europe to the Middle East. Equity fluent leaders understand the value of different lived experiences and courageously use their power to address barriers, increase access, and drive change for positive impact.

First Workshop Title | The Art of Authentic Leadership

---

Workshop Outline

When we become new leaders, we often adhere to a leadership style that is expected of us, one that has been held up as an archetype of success in the past, and/ or try on other leaders' styles that may not fit us. This session will re-introduce you to who you once were, the leader you are authentically, and the impactful leader that will inspire others to do their best work.

Second Workshop Title | Creating and communicating your Leadership story

---

Workshop Outline

They won't understand the message if they don't know the messenger. So much of inspiring high-performing teams and achieving success in your organization is communicating your vision, creating a culture of belonging, and inspiring others to flourish. We will learn and practice strategies and tools to become Chief Leadership Officers in your organization.