

World Sarcoma Awareness Month

It is a tumor in the bone that occurs as a result of
.abnormal proliferation of bone cells

facts

- Bone cancer is rare
- About 6 out of 10 people with bone cancer
- Treatment of bone cancer depends on: the type of cancer, the patient's health, and how far the disease has spread.

Symptoms

- Weight loss
- oppression
- Swelling or pain in the area near the cancer

When should I see a doctor?

- Intensifies at night
- The pain appears and goes away
- Does not go away after using painkillers

For more information
Scan the response code